Help her Choose life

Allison was adamant about having an abortion.

We explored the risks associated with each abortion procedure, concentrating on the physical, emotional, and spiritual impacts.

As emotions surfaced, she began to express her fears. Mom of two little ones, boyfriend had just left, she felt overwhelmed and believed she couldn't manage it alone.

The discussion unfolded and Allison began to realize that with the backing of her family, along with the resources provided by Tender Care and the community, she was capable of doing this! There was a glimmer of hope!

Allison enthusiastically agreed to prayer, and in that moment, a sense of peace filled the room. There was a noticeable light in her eyes and a smile on her face. She expressed that prayer was exactly what she needed, leading her to change her mind.

She watched the ultrasound in awe as her vibrant, beautiful baby was wiggling around. Overwhelmed with emotion, tears streamed down her face, as she exclaimed, "I almost got rid of it!"

Allison expressed her gratitude, happy about her visit, and appreciative for the time we spent guiding her through such a difficult decision.

We share in her joy and look forward to following her journey!
